

Thanks for considering sponsoring the Rise Up Summit, a free online conference for Christian educators. The summit will take place October 19-24 and includes a combination of live and on-demand sessions. You can find out more about the vision and content of the event at www.riseupchristianeducators.com.

Because the summit is online, we can reach many more educators than an in-person event allows. For your reference, here are some stats from last year's summit. We anticipate all of these numbers increasing this year.

- > Over 10,000 educators participated in the summit
- > The summit received over 49,000 page views over the long weekend.
- > Over 12,000 sessions watched during the summit.
- > Over 1,700 educators upgraded to the all-access pass so that they could watch (and re-watch) sessions after the summit ended
